

YOU CAN JOIN US:

- As a member if you want to support us :

CiDAN relies on members coming from all professional horizons: In activity or retired servicemen, operational or “citizens” (benevolent) reservists, teachers, professors, employees, businessmen, etc.... They all have the same will: reinforcing cohesion and solidarity, developing interest on defence issues within the population.

- As a delegate or project manager, if you are ready to invest yourself in concrete actions.

A network, including about a hundred of regional delegates, relays the action of CiDAN “on the field” at the local level.

Their engagement is achieved in relation with members of the Parliament, local elected members, civil and military authorities, the Ministry of National Education, firms and non-profit making organizations. This engagement may take many forms :

- Organization of public debates,
- Defence education in schools, colleges and universities,
- Support to the “defence representatives” in the towns and villages councils, in particular in preparing the emergency plans,
- Visits of military units, of memory places, rallies.

CiDAN is an association under the status of the 1901 French law (non-profit association). It accepts anybody sharing its objectives without regarding his opinions, beliefs, social and professional origins. Its centres of interest include :

- Civic behaviour and citizenship,
- Military, but also civil and economical defence (patriotism and economical intelligence),
- Integration within the Nation (« willing to live together »),
- Compatibility between National patriotism, European and world-wide citizenships.

Located at Artois Barracks in Versailles, the association aims at transmitting the importance of these issues to:

- Children, young people and adults;
- At the regional, national, European and world-wide levels.

CIVIC MIND AND DEFENCE AWARD

This award is given in rotation by the President of the Senate and by the President of the National Assembly. It rewards the best activity of solidarity between the civilian society and the Armed Forces.

The main fields of interest include:

- Information and education on defence issues,
- Social activities,
- Work on memory,
- Concrete actions reinforcing the relations between Armed Forces and the civil society.

In 2015, the ceremony took place at the National Assembly.
